Call for Artists

Lansing, MI—The Michigan Women's Historical Center is accepting applications from Michigan women artists and women's groups for art exhibits to be displayed in the Belen Gallery in 2012. To be considered for selection, an artist must submit an art exhibit application form, resume, at least 6 examples of her work, and a list of works to be displayed in the proposed exhibit with dimensions. The form can be downloaded at http://www.michiganwomenshalloffame.org/pages/exhibits_art.htm.

From the applications, the Art Exhibit Committee will select four individual artists or artist groups to exhibit in the gallery each year. Only the works of Michigan women will be accepted for display. Additional selection considerations are described in the Art Exhibit Policies document attached to the application. For more information, please contact Emily Fijol at the Historical Center at 517-484-1880 x202 or efijol@michiganwomen.org.

The mission of the Michigan Women's Historical Center is to inspire and engage adults and children by celebrating Michigan women's history, promoting educational opportunities, and honoring the accomplishments of Michigan women. The Center is open Wed-Sat 12-4 p.m. and the first Sun of every month 2-4 p.m. Admission is $2.50 adults, $2.00 seniors, and $1.00 students. Children ages 5 and under are free.
